"Her natural delivery...and her incredibly relaxed and likable personality helped to push the cause forward. I would encourage others to consider Catherine for their event...she is a pleasure to work with!"

Meryl Closs

Former Communications Director, American Heart Association

"Catherine's story was authentic and enlightening. You may think this would never happen to me, but in the digital age we live, we can absolutely become a victim of cyberbullying or humiliation. Catherine shares her knowledge on how to protect ourselves and the steps to take if we find ourselves in a cyberbullying situation. Catherine is engaging and a pleasure to hear speak. I would recommend her for young adults and adults alike."
